CONSUL FAN WANTS LIGHT

Killing of a Chinese Becomes an International Incident.

The killing of Chong Choy Fat during the course of a riot at Oahu plantation on the night of April 9th last, has arisen to the dignity of an international incident, the Chinese Consul having sent to the Attorney General the following letter with reference to the matter:

July 19th, 1905.

L. Andrews, Esq.,
Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu.

Sir: I have the honor to lay this before you for your careful consideration relative to the matter of the killing of one Chong Choy Fat in the Oahu Sugar Plantation on the 9th day of April last. An inquest was held over the body of the said Chong Choy Fat, and a verdict was rendered by the Jury, as follows: "That the said Chong Choy Fat came to his death on the 9th day of April, 1905, at Waipahu, District of Ewa, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, from hemorrhage due to a gunshot wound fired from an elevation by some person unknown to the Jury." On May 12th day last, about one month after this occurrence, I communicated with Mr. Wm. Henry, High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii on the subject, and his reply was to the effect "that the Coroner's Jury made all efforts to fasten the responsibility on the guilty person but failed." During the time that the inquest was in session, I was present, and one of the witnesses at the said inquest testified that the said Chong Choy Fat stated in the presence of several other persons before dying that a man on horseback had shot him. According to the testimonials given by various witnesses, it was proven that no one was on horseback excepting the police who raided the place and therefore it must be the police who did the shooting. Under these circumstances and as the matter has been kept in abeyance for a period of more than three months, no word has ever been heard from the Police Department of the arrest of any one who did the shooting. I therefore respectfully request that you will be good enough to carefully look into the matter and use your best legal efforts to fasten the responsibility on the guilty person or persons, so that he or they may be dealt with according to law.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your most obedient servant,
CHANG TSO TAN,
H. I. C. M.'s Consul.

To this letter the following answer has been returned, which shows that the Department has been keenly alive all along to the importance of the case:

Honolulu, July 20th, 1905.
To His High Imperial Chinese Majesty's Consul, Honolulu, T. H.
Sir: Your favor of July 19th duly received and in reply I would state that we have had for sometime, under investigation the matter of which you speak. It seems that there was considerable perjury committed at the hearing of the Coroner's inquest of which crime two of the witnesses have already been indicted through the efforts of this office, and it is hoped that at their trial further developments will be elicited as to the real cause of the death of Chong Choy Fat.

We would be very glad of any assistance which your Consulate can offer in this matter in the hunting down of the person guilty of the killing. Whether it should develop that it was a public official or some irresponsible person would make no difference in his prosecution by this office.

Yours respectfully,
LORRIN ANDREWS,
Attorney General.

The killing of Chong Choy Fat grew out of what was supposed to be, at the time, a political riot. It seems that Detective Officer McDuffie, after he had quit the police force, was employed as special officer at Oahu plantation, in the district of Ewa. Now, it may be it may not have been a coincidence, but it soon afterwards became known to the police that he was being played at Waipahu, and that Ah On and Ah Fat, two well known experts at that game, were frequenting the plantation.

Upon this information coming to the knowledge of the police, a raid of the place was planned, and it was in the course of this raid that the Chinese about whom the Consul has interested himself was killed. The story of the raid, it will be remembered, was told in divers ways at the time. In fact, there was a lot of conflict as to what the police did or did not do, and as to whether the shot that killed the Chinese was fired by a man on horse-

ON AND OFF THE STAGE.

Camille D'Arville has gone into vaudeville and will make $50,000 a year—as much as President McKinley receives from the nation.

In Austrian theaters no one is permitted to appear on the stage in a uniform bearing any resemblance to those used in the army of that country.

In some comments on the performance of "Hamlet" at an Albany theater a local critic, with the aid of a careless compositor, spoke of the hero as "the melancholy Dave."

Higgle—"Which of the actors in the play impressed you most favorably?" Bloozin—"Winderly." Higgle—"Why?" Bloozin—"He gave me two tickets for the show."—Roxbury Gazette.

"Wilkins said he acted the part of Hamlet last night as well as if Hamlet had been there acting it himself." "I believe him." "You do?" "Yes, there wasn't a bit of life in him."—Chicago Daily News.

The epidemic of Dumas' popular work dramatized had struck the town, and no less than three companies were producing it. "Have you seen the 'Three Musketeers'?" asked one citizen of another. "Oh, yes," was the reply, "I've seen all nine of them!"—Yonkers Statesman.

When the steamship Wellington arrived at San Francisco recently she brought a Japanese whom she had picked up at sea after he had been standing four days and four nights, without food or water, on the bottom of a capsized fishing boat. He had held to the center board, though the sea was rough.

THE FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF HAWAII CONTAINS:

1. The first Constitution of Kamehameha III, 1840, including the previously issued Bill of Rights.
2. The first laws of Hawaii, enacted under Kamehameha III, (1833-1842), published together in 1842.
3. The law creating and principles guiding the Land Commission.
4. The second Constitution of Kamehameha III, 1852.
5. The Constitution of Kamehameha V, 1884.
6. The Constitution of Kalakaua, 1887.
7. The Proclamation and orders incident to the establishment of the Provisional Government, 1893.
8. The Constitution of the Republic of Hawaii, 1894.
9. The treaty annexing Hawaii to the United States, 1897.
10. The Resolution of the Hawaiian Senate ratifying the annexation treaty, 1897.
11. The Joint Resolution of Congress annexing Hawaii, 1898.
12. The documents and procedure incident to the transfer of the sovereignty and possession of Hawaii to the United States, 1898; and the executive orders of President McKinley, relating to the government of Hawaii, issued during the transition period between the date of annexation and the passage of the Organic Act, 1898-1900.
13. The Act of Congress organizing Hawaii into a Territory, 1900.

The act passed by Congress creating a government for Hawaii repeals and amends scores of civil and criminal statutes previously enacted by Hawaiian legislatures.

No man knows what is in the Organic Act except through the medium of an index. The previously printed copies of this law in use in Hawaii contain only 657 indexed subjects.

The index of the Organic Act in the "Fundamental Law of Hawaii" contains 1399 indexed subjects and cross references.
